1. Who can come into Me for grace and not tell Me how to grace them.

2. Who can come into Me for who I am, what I am, in the simplicity of truth?

3. Who can come into Me and give Me their time without being adamant, arrogant, and telling Me how I am, how I operate, and how I am to reveal Myself to them?

4. Who will come into Me and let Me be Me?

5. Who will present themselves before Me, yea, with no clothes on, no airs of righteousness, no robes of pretense, no airs, no images of Me, no images of them, thoughtless, yea, surrendering all thought to stand before Me and let Me robe, image and heal; heal your image and give you the clothing of Me and walk in My righteousness, yea, upon the stars.

6. I love you and I give you Me. I give you all of Me and I give you Me multiple times a day and yea, never choosing to refuse Me. I thank you.

7. Yea, I come into you, I come unto you, I come upon you, I come out of you. I come in word. I come in power and I come in grace and you, my power and grace, now coming, flowing through you to others, yea, releasing My power and grace through the timid-once who now are timid no longer; seeing their leadership and their grace; seeing that I am them and they are Me and I love My creation and I put all of Me in them, and they have been duped into thinking theological correctness when all along I am not theology and I have none.

8. Yea, I am Me and I am relationship personified. I am My New Covenant. I am My voice. I am My word. And yea, I give My people Me. Yea, those who come into Me and hear My voice, yea, I sup with them and them with Me and they begin to know, they begin to grow. Yea, they begin to glean and eat My words as I spread feast after feast in them, before them, them choosing everyday what they will eat, entering into their mind and absorbing, yea, thoughts of reality real, true truth, yea, that I have brought upon the platters of surrender that, yea, are put before Me in airs-none, yea, nakedness of pretense, yea, without the arrogance and imagery that is so pervasive, so pervasively placed upon Me, yea, that is not My image at all.

9. I love you. I give you Me. I give you grace and graciousness and gracefully now I give you the grace to communicate My grace and My loveliness to My body; yea, that images not them upon Me, but, yea, Me upon them.

10. I give you Me and I give you all of Me and I grace you this day. Yea, My bank account is yours. My funds are yours. Yea, My fun, yea, resides in you as yea, we bubble over with excitement. Yea, and into each other's arms, frolic, yea, in word after word, touch upon touch, yea, us with each other, One-ing My body from one end to the other, far and wide, world without end. Yea, there is no beginning and no end.

11. I love you eternal one, eternaling now My body in the righteousness of truth and the truth of holiness and the holiness of righteousness. Yea, I love you.
Purity, purity, purity, the basis; surrender the key.
I love you and I give you Me this day.

12. Come unto Me more, more, more. And yea, let Me flow for I bring transcriptionists, helpers, aids, yea, surrenderers of massive skill, talent, ability, devotion. Yea, skill of My heart to do as I My Father wants done, operated in, yea, being Me with the tenderness of grace. I love you and I give you Me.

13. I yearn for My body to know all and eat one final Passover with Me not, yea, but daily, hourly, continuously in the exchange of only Me, Fathers' hearts' design.

I thank you and I give you Me.

Good day
